

Hawkins Advisories on Securities Law and Tax Law Developments in Public Finance

12.15.2016

Attorneys at Hawkins have recently authored several Hawkins Advisories on legal topics of interest to issuers and professionals in the tax-exempt finance industry, including updates on several important developments in tax and securities law. By circulating Advisories after important legal developments in public finance, Hawkins keeps its clients and friends well informed as to these topics.

John McNally and other attorneys in the Hawkins securities law group authored Hawkins Advisories on the SEC cease-and-desist settlement orders with 71 municipal issuers and obligated persons pursuant to the MCDC Initiative and on MSRB Rule G-42.

Attorneys in the Hawkins tax department authored Hawkins Advisories on new final regulations published by the IRS amending certain provisions of the existing arbitrage regulations and on IRS Revenue Procedure 2016-44, which modifies existing procedures on treatment of management contracts involving property financed with tax-exempt bond proceeds.

These Hawkins Advisories and many others on topics of interest may be found at www.hawkins.com.

Practices

- Securitization
- Tax