

Arthur Cohen is Recognized by Continental Who's Who

10.04.2018

Arthur Cohen is recognized by Continental Who's Who as a Pinnacle Lifetime Member in the field of Law in recognition of his role as Partner of Hawkins Delafield & Wood LLP.

Arthur's legal career of more than 40 years has been spent entirely at Hawkins. He is an economic development, government finance and project finance attorney who has served as bond counsel, underwriters' counsel and borrower's counsel for varied projects and financings throughout the country.

"Having spent his entire professional career in lower Manhattan, Arthur Cohen is most proud of his role as counsel to the underwriters for the multiple municipal bond financings necessary to provide funds for the reconstruction of each of Towers 3, 4 and 7 of New York's World Trade Center, as well as for the financing of the office building known as One Bryant Park in Times Square utilizing for the first time a combined financing structure of both municipal revenue bonds and collateralized mortgage-backed securities".

Arthur dedicated this recognition to his family as well as Robert C. Rosenberg, his late mentor at Hawkins Delafield who hired him and gave him a chance to succeed by teaching Arthur everything about the practice.

Attorney

- Arthur Cohen

Practices

- Bond Counsel
- Underwriters' Counsel
- Project Finance
- Borrower's Counsel

Industry

- Economic Development