

Hawkins Delafield & Wood LLP opens its Rochester office, which is the Firm's 11th office overall

05.30.2025

Hawkins is pleased to announce the opening of its newest office located at 1160 Pittsford-Victor Road, Suite 11, Pittsford, New York. This marks the firm's 11th office nationwide and represents a strategic expansion of Hawkins' presence in Western New York.

The Firm's new office will allow the firm to better serve clients in the greater Rochester area and throughout western New York, while also supporting the continued growth of the firm's public finance and infrastructure practices.

"We are excited to establish a presence in the Rochester area and continue building on our long tradition of providing trusted legal counsel to clients across New York State," said John Renken, Managing Partner of Hawkins Delafield & Wood LLP. "This expansion enables us to work more closely with our clients and strengthen our relationships in the region."

With the addition of the office in Pittsford, Hawkins now has offices in eleven locations across the country, including New York City, Washington, D.C., Newark, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and now western New York.

Founded in 1854, Hawkins Delafield & Wood LLP is recognized nationally for its work in public finance, public contracts, infrastructure development, and related areas.

Attorneys

- Robert Smith
- William J. Jackson
- Zachary Polo