

Hawkins Delafield & Wood LLP Earns Band 1 Ranking in Chambers USA 2025

06.05.2025

Hawkins Delafield & Wood LLP is proud to announce that the firm has once again received a prestigious Band 1 ranking for public finance in the 2025 edition of Chambers USA. This top-tier recognition reflects our continued commitment to excellence, client service, and leadership in the field of public finance law.

Chambers and Partners, a globally respected legal ranking organization, bases its rankings on in-depth research and client feedback. A Band 1 ranking signifies the highest level of recognition in a given practice area and jurisdiction.

Hawkins has consistently earned national and regional recognition for its work in public finance, project finance, public contracts, and related disciplines. The Band 1 ranking underscores the firm's longstanding reputation as a leader in complex and impactful legal matters.
