

Hawkins Delafield & Wood LLP Again Earns Top Recognition in Chambers USA 2026

06.04.2026

Hawkins is pleased to announce that the firm has once again been recognized among the nation's leading public finance law firms in the 2026 edition of Chambers USA, continuing a longstanding tradition of excellence in serving clients across the public finance sector.

In addition to the firm's ranking, ten Hawkins attorneys received individual recognition for their contributions to the practice:

- Arthur Cohen (New York)
- Brian Garziona (District of Columbia)
- Robert H. Beinfield (New Jersey)
- Charles Toto (New Jersey)
- Howard Zucker (New York)
- Jeffrey A. Poley (North Carolina)
- Kristine Flynn (New Jersey)
- Neil Kaplan (New York)
- Robert Smith (New York)
- Sean Tierney (California)

For more than three decades, Chambers and Partners has evaluated law firms and attorneys through a rigorous research process that includes extensive interviews with clients, lawyers, and industry participants. Its rankings are based on qualities such as technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commercial awareness, diligence, and commitment to clients.

The continued recognition of both the firm and its attorneys reflects the depth of Hawkins' public finance practice, the strength of its client relationships, and its role in helping finance projects that support communities throughout the United States.

We are grateful to our clients and colleagues for their continued confidence and partnership and congratulate our ranked attorneys on this distinguished achievement.
