

Faust Bowerman

Partner

Faust practices solely in federal income tax matters relating to public finance, including multi-family and single-family housing finance tax-exempt governmental bonds, tax-exempt qualified private activity bonds, tax credit bonds, arbitrage, and tax-advantaged bond controversy matters.

Faust has advised his clients on the Federal income tax aspects of tax-exempt and tax credit bond financing transactions for, among others, multi-family residential rental; single-family loan programs; senior living facilities; governmental general obligation bonds; governmental grant programs, including housing grant programs; extraordinary working capital deficits; primary, secondary and higher education facilities; healthcare facilities; transportation facilities; utility facilities; and venue projects.

Faust has represented numerous issuers before the Internal Revenue Service in connection with audits and voluntary settlements, as well as in connection with self-correcting remedial actions. He has also assisted numerous issuer clients in the establishment and development of written post-issuance tax compliance policies and procedures.

CONTACT

P 212.820.9429

E fbowerman@hawkins.com

PRACTICE

Tax

INDUSTRY

Housing

EDUCATION

University of Texas at Austin,
B.A.

Southern Methodist University
Dedman School of Law, J.D.

Southern Methodist University
Dedman School of Law,
LL.M., Taxation

ADMISSIONS

New York

Texas

- Single-Family Financing Essentials: Mortgage Revenue Bonds
HFA Institute National Council of State Housing Finance Agencies
- General Roundtable Session – Legal, Compliance and Regulatory Issues Facing HFAs
National Association of Local Housing Finance Agencies, Annual Conference
- Single-Family Housing Bonds
National Association of Bond Lawyers, Bond Attorneys’ Workshop
- Single-Family Financing Essentials: Mortgage Revenue Bonds
HFA Institute National Council of State Housing Finance Agencies
- Selected Topics in Tax Enforcement
National Association of Bond Lawyers, Bond Attorneys’ Workshop