

Jamison Sadlon-del Pozo Partner

Jamison serves as bond counsel, underwriters' counsel and disclosure counsel on a variety of tax-exempt and taxable public finance transactions, with a focus on housing finance and tobacco settlement revenue securitization. Her broad range of experience makes her a versatile member of any team she works with.

Jamison represents issuers and underwriters throughout the country in single-family and multi-family housing finance transactions, tobacco settlement revenue securitizations, general obligation and tax-secured bond issuances, and project finance transactions. She has over 17 years of experience in structured finance, including over 12 years dedicated to public finance.
