

Kristine Flynn

Partner

Kristi serves as bond counsel, underwriters' counsel and borrower's counsel in connection with municipal general obligation financings, and health care, educational and cultural facility financings nationwide.

Kristi has nearly 20 years of experience serving as bond counsel, underwriters' counsel and borrower's counsel in connection with health care, educational and cultural facility financings of varied types, sizes and structures throughout the country.

Kristi also serves as bond counsel to several municipal issuers in connection with the full range of municipal financing activities, including general obligation financings, certificates of participation, public offerings and direct placements, lease purchases and revenue-backed financings.

Kristi's clients range in size and scope from large, national health care systems, leading higher education institutions and preparatory schools throughout the country, to community hospitals, local health and social service providers, cultural organizations and municipalities.
