

Roger Bagley Partner

Roger joined Hawkins Delafield & Wood LLP in 1982 and became a partner in 1988. He has a wide range of experience in the practice of public finance and securities law and in insolvency matters, including representation in bankruptcy proceedings, and in new-issue and secondary market bond financings, including those for industrial and commercial development, health care, infrastructure development and privatization, multi-family and single-family housing, and tobacco settlement asset securitization.

Roger has represented creditors in the second reorganization of Continental Airlines, in the reorganization of America West Airlines, and in proceedings for rehabilitation of Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company; other Bond Counsel engagements are Battery Park City Authority, New Jersey Turnpike Authority, Maine Health and Higher Educational Facilities Authority, New York City Industrial Development Agency, New York State Housing Finance Agency, and New York State Urban Development Corporation (Empire State Development Corporation).

Roger has served as special tax counsel in financings for the Jefferson Sales Tax District (Louisiana), Tulsa County (Oklahoma) Home Finance Authority, the Louisiana Housing Finance Agency, the City of Kenner, Louisiana, Jefferson Parish (Louisiana) Home Mortgage Authority, and the Greater New Orleans Expressway Commission. He has also served as underwriter's counsel to numerous investment banking firms.

CONTACT

212.820.9497
rbagley@hawkins.com

INDUSTRIES

Cultural Institutions and Foundations
Economic Development
Housing

PRACTICES

Bond Counsel
Disclosure Counsel
Private Placements
Project Finance
Securitization
Underwriters' Counsel

EDUCATION

Haverford College, A.B.
Duke University, J.D.

ADMISSION

New York