

Burlington County Biosolids Composting Facility

As special counsel to Burlington County, Hawkins assisted in the preparation of procurement documents and drafted and negotiated a design-build-operate-maintain and biosolids marketing contract for an SRF-funded biosolids and organic waste co-composting project serving more than 20 municipal sewage biosolids generators in the County. The DBOM transaction was undertaken after the County rejected bids submitted in response to a traditional DBB procurement.

Clients: Burlington County, New Jersey

Role: Owner's Lead Counsel

Distinction: Largest Alternative Delivery Biosolids Management Facility Procurement in New Jersey

Delivery Method: Design-Build-Operate-Maintain

Project Size: 300 TPD

Capital Cost: $37 Million

Contract Value: $100 Million

Contract Term: 10 years

Contract Counterparties: Waste Management, Inc.

Attorneys

- Eric Sapir
- Eric S. Petersen

Practice

- Alternative Project Delivery

Industry

- Solid Waste