

City of Memphis, Tennessee General Improvements Bonds

Hawkins served the city of Memphis, Tennessee as bond counsel in its $208 million general improvement refunding bonds. This debt issuance is a pooled financing of over 300 capital projects which were previously financed by other type of debt. It enabled the city to retire short-term bond anticipation notes and commercial papers, and received a low long-term rate.

Clients: City of Memphis, Tennessee

Role: Bond Counsel

Distinction: SUPPLY

Issuer: City of Memphis, Tennessee

Issue Size: $208 Million

Award: SUPPLY

Attorney

- Steven Turner

Practice

- Bond Counsel