

Hillsboro Economic Development Council

Hawkins served as bond counsel and disclosure counsel to the Hillsboro Economic Development Council for economic development projects in the Council's North Hillsboro Industrial Renewal Area (IRA), to support the city and region's center of technology innovation and manufacturing.

The bond issue will finance projects in the IRA that may include real property acquisitions for right-of-way, transportation improvements, utilities, open space and trails, wetland mitigation, stormwater management, natural resource enhancements, land assembly, and land banking for economic development purposes.

Clients: Hillsboro Economic Development Council, Oregon

Role: Bond Counsel and Disclosure Counsel

Distinction: Tax Increment Financing for Economic Development

Issuer: Hillsboro Economic Development Council, Oregon

Issue Size: $83.1 Million

Attorneys

- Gülgün Uğur
- Sarah Dickey
- Lin Tian

Practices

- Bond Counsel
- Disclosure Counsel

Industry

- Economic Development