

Morris County Recyclable Materials Marketing Project

The firm assisted the Morris County Municipal Utilities Authority in the procurement and negotiation of a contract for the marketing of recyclable materials. The agreement required the private company to design, build, finance, own, operate and maintain a new single stream recycling facility that allowed the Authority to expand one of New Jersey's leading recycling programs by collecting materials on a single stream basis.

Clients: Morris County Municipal Utilities Authority

Role: Owner's Lead Counsel

Delivery Method: Design-Build-Finance-Own-Operate-Maintain (P3)

Project Size: 30 TPH

Capital Cost: $6 Million

Contract Value: $2.6 Million

Contract Term: 5 Years

Contract Counterparties: FCR and ReCommunity

Awards: Resource Recovery Magazine Materials Recovery Facility of the Month

Attorneys

- Eric Sapir
- Megan I. Sartor

Practices

- Alternative Project Delivery
- Project Finance
- Public-Private Partnerships

Industry

- Solid Waste