

Health Care Tax-Exempt Organizations

Many of the nation's largest universities, hospitals, academic medical centers and other charitable organizations look to Hawkins for advice on tax, unrelated business income, governance and compliance matters. We are one of very few firms nationally with substantial experience as bond counsel, underwriters' counsel and disclosure counsel that also represents a broad array of tax-exempt organizations. As the legal and regulatory landscape grows increasingly complicated, Hawkins helps tax-exempt organizations develop a sophisticated and informed approach to compliance, disclosure, governance and transactional opportunities.
